

Fishing

IN OUR LOCAL WATERS

Trawls (dragners) are the most common gear being used in commercial fishing. Bottom trawls are funnel shaped nets attached to an otter board, and the gear is towed behind the vessel to capture fish. Other gears being used around Long Island include Long Lines, Gill Nets, Rod and Reel.

Gill net drying on the beach.

Commerical fishermen working on deck.

Fish packed in ice.

Trawler net fishing at sea.